

[Re]^ Thinking of Women's Role in Conflicts and War

Seminar and film screening
5 March 2013
Movie Theater – Spegeln
Malmoe, Sweden

Feminist Dialog will take the first steps toward feminist re-thinking by inviting those who have lived or are living in different conflict situations, regions of war and militaristic locations.

Most of women and children are victims of the situation. However we would like to talk, discuss and analyze the women's activism and resistance in order to reduce and stop the different forms of violence.

We will demonstrate the need for such moments of meetings and sharing in order to expand the area of feminist analysis.

This project will carry out in the form of a series of film screenings and seminars and will develop into a range of wider Feministic Encounters and Meetings in the future.
Our first seminar is a collaboration with a film screening by IFEMA.

Where Do We Go Now?

Nadine Labaki / 2011/ Libanon, Frankrike, Egypten, Italien/ Komedi/ 110 min

I en liten isolerad by på den libanesiska landsbygden har det alltid rått lugn och ro, men nu har religionsmotsättningar blossat upp mellan kristna och muslimska män.

Kvinnorna i byn börjar bli rejält trötta på sina konfliktörstande män och de är rädda för att deras bråk ska fördärva den fina byn. Men när spänningarna mellan männen hotar gemenskapen, griper byns kvinnor in.

Med kreativa idéer försöker de förhindra den eskalerande konflikten till varje pris. En varm komedi som väcker lika många tankar som skratt.

Regissören Nadine Labaki föddes i Libanon och är känd för sin film "Caramel" (2007).
